More information is needed in order to move the claim to the next step of the claims process. Incorrect Answer Feedback: Incorrect. This claim does require additional development. There are no further requirements to notify or request forms from the Veteran as 5103 notification has been met and there are no special issues that require additional forms or information. The Veteran hasn't mentioned any treatment at a non-Federal facility, so no development is required. Required personnel records have been requested (per instructions) and VAMC treatment records are not found. The only development required is to request Service Treatment Records (STRs). Evidence shows that this Veteran was immediately assigned to a Reserve unit after being released from active duty, so the Army sent his STRs to the Reserve unit for storage and maintenance. Additionally, STRs were not available in JLV, so submitting a PIES RV1 is appropriate. See steps 4 and 5 from M21-1 III.ii.2.B.1.b – Obtaining STRs for Members of the Reserve or National Guard.
